

MEDIA / PRESS / TV

In addition to the players and beachfront users, we do our best to get your company name, banner and products in the media. All local newspapers and regional TV companies are invited to our three major annual events each year and the Mayor of Exmouth often presents the junior awards.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL
 and in addition to the regular league games there are always an additional two courts for newcomers to have a go and indeed for coaching sessions for those players who would benefit from expert help.
 One of the busiest administrators in the league this summer has been the 'beach league co-ordinator' who has the task of deciding of the days weather permits play.
 If a session needs to be cancelled then notification is put onto the league's very informative website is that all players entering, indeed, new to the league attend short introduction and demonstrate the use of the Beach II Signals (hence the training coaching nets).
 This year's various competitions are reaching the closing stages the women's pairs there are six players who have registered points or more so far led by West with 37.
 Just behind West is Claire Fudge (32) followed by Jess Webb (30), Laura Wilson (29), Rachel...
